NIGHT

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1901.

BIG CROWD IN ST. LOUIS GREETS MATHEWSON

CROKER SAW THE DERBY WON.

Tammany Chief Bet Against the Winner-He Was a Central, but Lonely Figure Among the American Contingent.

(Copyright, 1901, by the Press Publishing Com-(Special to The Evening World.)

the great crowd of Americans at William C. Whitney's EPSOM England, June 5.-Amid all remarkable figure was that of Richard Croker, the Tammany leader. He seemed to be lonely in the crowd, the ing David Nagle, his friend and relative, and his head man from Wantage. could not accompany him inved for owners and those belonging the Epsom Club. Every one in this re always dresses in a frock coat men or titled, were in mourning a black frock coat, a black double-breasted waist coat, black trousers, black recktie and a mourning band on his silk hat. The only relief to this his silk hat. The only relief to this funeral attire was a pair of tan colored kid gloves and a large pearl pin. His sleeve links were also of large pearls. The Tammany ruler looked well and walked slowly and somewhat heavily. Though the sun was terrifically hot he never removed his gloves, though he mopped his forehead frequently with his handkerchief. his handkerchief.

his handkerchief.

He had two horses entered for the first race and one in the second race, but none ran. He went into the paddock, where he met Nagle when the horses were being paraded, and he inspected them all in the blazing sun, but never spoke to Nagle, who walked a short distance behind him. short distance behind him.

Mr. Croker appeared to know or notice no one, and was probably the most solitary, self-contained figure in all the hundreds of thousands at Epson. Downs. Just before the big race he returned to

He took a bet of $625 to $1,000 offered by a bookmaker that Volodyovski would not be in first three. He also took a bet of $500 to $1,000 on Revenue, the Irish horse. The Duke of Devonshire stood close by the "Boss." Mr. Croker never used glasses. He returned to town immediately afte the races, shaking hands heartily with Lester Reiff in the weigh-

GRANT AT WEST POINT.

General Given Salute and Met by Military Escort.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 5 .- Brig. Gen. F. D. Grant arrived here this af-ternoon. He was met at the boat landing by Col. Mills, Adjt. Rivers and an

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the thirtysix hours ending 8 P. M.

RICHARD CROKER AT THE DERBY. From Description Cabled by The Evening World Correspondent at Epsom. the inclosure and took a place close to

CIVES UP SUIT.

the Cumberland Set- | Against North Brother tles His Case.

ing by Coi. Mills, Adjt. Rivers and an escort of cavairy. A salute of eleven guns was fired, and there was a grand review of the corps of cadefs in honor of Gen. The General is here to meet his son. Cadet U. S. Grant, of the third class.

The action brought by Coi. Winneld Mrz. Herman Lemmerman, the wife of a grocer, of No. 71 East One Hundred and Fifty-fith street, appeared before from interfering with him in the occupation of his apartments on the sixth floor of the Cumberland, Twenty-second if something could not be done against junction preventing interference with years old.

him, and Justice Blanchard, in the Su- Mrs. Lemmerman said that on March preme Court, subsequently heard argu- 31 last her two daughters, Clara, five ments as to why the temporary injunc- and a half years old, and Edna, were Solitary Occupant of Woman Makes Charges - Island.

The action brought by Col. Winfield Mrs. Herman Lemmerman, the wife of street and Broadway, was discontinued the authorities of North Brother Island to-day, , who she holds responsible for the death Col. Proskey obtained a temporary in- of her daughter Edna, four and a half

Thursday, June 6, for New York City and vicinity—
Fair and very warm weath—
or for two or three days; inght to fresh southerly winds.

Pennsylvania Railread's Triple
Terminals,
At West 23 st., Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found drowned in the East River.

At West 23 st., Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found drowned in the East River.

At West 23 st., Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found drowned in the East River.

At West 23 st., Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one ward to the carried to the street street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found drowned in the East River to the other.

At West 24 st., Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found drowned in the East River to the other.

At west 25 st. Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found and Twentieth street to the other.

At West 25 st. Desbresses and Certinese street, accommendate travel to and from all one was found to the scarlet fever ward and that the child had contracted the scarlet fever ward went to the small-pox ward and vice versa, and in the East River.

At West 25 st. Desbresses and Certinese street and deal from it.

This woman who had been taken to North Brother Island suffering from small-pox.

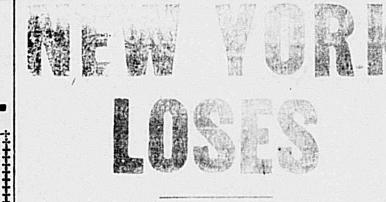

She said that she was told by a woman who had been taken to North Brother Island suffering from small-pox.

She said that she was told by a woman who had been taken to North Brother Island suffering from small-pox.

She said that she was told by a woman who had been taken to North Brother Island suffering from small-pox.

She said that she was told by a woman who had been taken to North Brother Island suffering from small-pox.

She said that she was told by a woman who had been taken to North Brother Island that her vounded to the scarlet fever ward and that the child had contracted the sca

SCORE BY INNINGS.

NEW YORK ..... 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0—3 ST. LOUIS .... 0 0 0 0 2 2 0 0 —4

CINDINNATI .... 0 0 0 1 0

At Pittsburg-Piladelphia, 2: Pittsburg-At Princeton-Carlisle, O: Princeton, 14.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES

At Chicago-End of second: Mashington, O: Chicago, O. At Milwaukee-End of second: Boston, 0: Milwaukee, 1. At Cleveland-End of first: Baltimore, 7: Cleveland, 1. At Detroit—End of secon

WINNERS AT GRAVESEND.

Sixth Race—Alfonso 1. Dr. Preston Z. Lago Hopper 3.

RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

Fourth Race-Wall 1. Chroning Nobleman 3.

HAWTHORNE WINNERS

Fourth Race-Silurian 1. Gaherie 2. Randon 3. Fifth Race-Our Nellie 1 Bland 2 Golden Scepter 3.

SHOT HIMSELF IN CENTEAL PARK.

Peter Bogart, forty-nine years old of No. 119 Chaunos street. Brooklyn, attempted ou slop by shooting himself in the head to-say in Central Park. See the Presbyteria Hospital,

MAGISTRATE POOL TO DISCHARGE JOE PHILLIPS.

Magistrate Post and this afternoons "It is within my power to discharge Joe Phillips. ! am go ing to visit Dr. Coe and I don't see why Joe can't have a home

"He deserves it, and The Evening World is to be praise for its interest in this little warfarer."

FROM CHURCH TO WEAR 2 78 1110%.

James Farrell, forty years old of 1046 De Kalb avenu Brooklyn, was this afternoon taken from the Carmelite Churc in East Twenty-eighth street to the insure Davilion at Bellevi Hospital. This morning he support overboard from the pier first Twenty-eighth street. He was recured and walked The church, where it was seen he was resame.

Twice the Usual Number of "Cowboy" Fans Turn Out to See Giants' Star Twirler at Work---He Begins Well.

TABLOIDS. TOLD

GIRL CUT HER THROAT.-Mamie Sheehan, twenty-six years old, a consumptive, fearing she would become a burden on her relatives, committed suicide by cutting her throat to-day at her home, No 304 East Thirty-ninth street.

BALL TEAM WRECKED. - Five members of Syracuse ball team were in a trolley-car wrecked there to-day. De Montreville had left leg broken, John G. White's leg was broken, and McManus had two fingers broken. Lyuch and Horton were bruised.

PRESIDENT ENCOURAGED. - Mr. McKinley said this afternoon he believed the tide had turned and that Mrs. McKinley would continue to improve.

TELLS OF BRIDGE JUMPER.-R. R. Champlin, of No. 144 West Ninety-first street, a friend of R. S. Bidwell, who was killed in jumping from the bridge yesterday, said to-day that the young man wanted to demonstrate the power of mind over matter.

GELLER CALLED A BIGAMIST. laidor Geller, a hair-dresser, thirty-uine years old, of No. 80 Clinton street, was held in the Essex Market Court to-day on a charge of bigamy. Ida Geller, of No. 55 Ridge street, who claims to be the man's second wife, was the complainant.

Edgar Wade, treasurer of the Savings Bank, at Sag Harbor, L. Choice distres of the season served a streamable rates. The business means the season served at reasonable rates. The business means the season served at reasonable rates. The business means the services of the season served at reasonable rates.

room this morning. He had shot himself through the head. Illhealth is said to have been the cause. His accounts were in good YACHT SUNK IN SOUND,-The sloop yacht Astral was sunk in Long Island Sound, off Portchester, today by the explosion of a gasolene stove. The steward was badly burned and, with eight of the crew, barely escaped drowning.

BOY'S BODY NOT EDENTRITED .-Nobody has yet identified the buy who was found dead at the foct of the Palisades near the West Shore ferry.

street, by inhaling gas. He was an employee of Horton & Co., No. 66 Broadway. He lost all his money in the late panie in Wall

Gov. Odell has notified District-Attorney Philbin that a pardon

BANK TREASURER A SUICIDE .- Pennsylvania Railroad's Dining-Car Service.

(Special to The Evening World)
SPORTSMAN'S PARK, ST. LOUIS.

Mo., June 5.—"Well, boys, let's make it three straight from this Denovan crowd." said Manager Davis when he

BROKER COMMITS SUICIDE. - first Western trip have keyed the Gian-Charles J. Hatch, a broker, sixty- up to a clip even speedler than they one years old, committed saicide showed at home, and they will make this morning at his home, No. 210 an extra effort to leave this bake oven West One Hundred and Thirtleth burg with a clean string of victories, With Mathewson on the firing line every man in the Gotham line-up retain victory. Will Try to Help Matty a Bit.

"Let's see if we can't hit a little behind Matty, just for a change," said FRENCHY" TO BE PARDONED.— Kip Selbach. "It seems strange that we can soak the ball hard when any-body else is twirling, but with Matty has been saked for Ben Ali, alian in the box we have our own troubles in the box we have our own troubles getting a run around to the pan, tence for the murder of "Old all the time to hold the other fellows Shakespeare." Mr. Philbin will down to a shut out or one run. It likely recommend that the pardon be granted.

don be granted.

don be granted.

don be granted.

down to because we don't try as hard to hit behind him, as we do behind anybody else. It's just one of those odd streets. that come up in baseball once in a while. I guess we are about due to batting bee with the college beg